IACCC Meeting Minutes 09/18/09
All schools were represented except CSUN, University of St. Augustine

Program Announcements

Western University— Admitted new class in fall; has open faculty position
Loma Linda University— Started anatomy in summer, now in fall classes; 2010 is last pMPT class
Mount St. Mary's College— Started new class in fall; has group that will be graduating October 3rd; has open faculty position
Azusa Pacific University— Schedule for terms will be changing due to University administration, so clinical rotation dates will need to be changed starting in 2010; APU will be calling clinics that will be impacted
Chapman University— Started classes end of August; has open faculty position
USC— Started new class in fall; labs are being remodeled
Cerritos College— Marijean Piorkowski is back at Cerritos to coordinate clinical education; Marijean is now officially trained as an onsite CAPTE accreditor
CSULB— Started fall semester

Important! Clarification of need for CIs be APTA Credentialed by 2010

This ONLY applies for clinical instructors who will be serving as supervisors for those PTLAs who are foreign educated. This requirement does NOT apply to those CIs taking students in entry level PT and PTA education programs

CI Training (forms available at http://www.iaccc.net/iaccc_courses.htm)

There is a call for persons to go to a "Train the Trainer" course for teaching the CIECP course—details on APTA website
Training to be held in Placentia November 7th and 8th; contact Lisa Carroll for details or see forms on website; registration deadline Oct. 8th
Many requests for courses in 2010—we are working on the schedule for those courses
